

Press Release

Freeplay Music Offers Attractive Licensing Rates To Indies

New York, Nov. 4, 2008

Freeplay Music, the web-based Production and Indie Artist music library, is pleased to announce its exciting collaboration with BYkids, a unique non-profit organization that pairs master American filmmakers with youth (ages 8-21) from around the world to mentor the child in creating a short documentary about his or her life. Freeplay Music has over 3,500 titles and with the recent addition of over 5,500 music titles, including marches, classical and orchestral tracks, Freeplay Music is offering aggressive licensing rates to film makers and producers of television content entering The Accolade and The Indie competitions. For more about information contact Gretchen@freeplaymuisc.com.