

PALM SPRINGS, Calif./EWorldWire/Oct 20, 2009 --- With a burning passion for the creative, Leslie Jean Porter has attracted a prestigious Award of Merit from The Accolade Competition for her short movie, Mystical Fire.

Mystical Fire tells about the ancient tradition of the sacred pipe carrier from the Sioux Lakota Native American Indians.

"When you turn to mystery, magic happens - a wonderful journey with the ancestors of Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse. The Chasing Horse family are true blood Sioux Lakota American Indians that live by the traditional ways. They are healers and good friends. I am glad we could make this movie for them and help them achieve the recognition they deserve," said Porter.

"Thank you for choosing Mystical Fire for this award," stated Winifred Chasing His Horse (Cante-aaste-wiyan 10-10-09), on behalf of the Chasing His Horse Family. "Thank you, Leslie Jean Porter and Bruce Feagle for this type of film - it provides native Americans with the chance to share our untold stories.

Producer Bruce Feagle added, "I was very happy to hear that Mystical Fire received the Accolade Film Awards 2009 Award of Merit. I am very proud to have been part of such a great team."

The Accolade recognizes film, television and videography professionals who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity, who stand out in entertainment and contribute to profound social change. Entries are judged by highly qualified professionals in the film and television industry. Learn more at TheAccolade.net (<http://www.theaccolade.net>).

For more information call Leslie Jean Porter at +1-760-831 04 14 or visit LJPFilms.com (<http://www.ljpfilms.com>). Ms. Porter and the Chasing Horse family are available for interviews and public speaking or guest teaching.