

Accolade Competition Deadline: July 15, 2005

Best of Show

Empy Building Production Corporation, The Empty Building, awarded an Accolade for creativity/originality, is Giovanni Sanseviero's directorial debut. Combining past and present with dreamlike textures, this 42-minute film is sparse in dialogue and heavy with rich and artful imagery. Stretching beyond conventional narrative structures, Sanseviero may be foreshadowing the first inklings of future masterpieces.
